CHA PI

Rosé

THE PET NAT
ANCESTRAL FROM THE "RITUAL"

...that young people like

CHA PI is a wine born from the blend of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, the two grape varieties from which the name originates.

The RITUAL of turning the bottle upside down allows the noblest part of the yeasts adhering to the bottom of the bottle to mix together enriching the taste of the wine.

BORGO MARAGLIANO

CHA PI

Pét Nat indicates a category of “natural” wines also defined as “ancestral” because, just like in the very first sparkling wines, at the end of the refermentation the yeasts remain in the bottle.

They are refreshing and joyful wines whose sediment makes the product turbid.

CHA PI FOR BORGO MARAGLIANO

It represents the attention of the winery towards consumers who are more sensitive to natural wines.

PAIRING SUGGESTIONS

Excellent with fish, especially raw fish and Oriental cuisine.
You can also give it a try with fresh goat cheese.

CONSUMPTION SUGGESTIONS

Ideal as an aperitif, in Summer can be served very chilled.
